what visitor woman probably ate daniel betnstein in v

In the original V and V: The Final Battle, no specific female Visitor is ever shown or clearly named as the one who eats Daniel Bernstein.[1][2][3]

What happens to Daniel

- Daniel is tortured, then sent off to be “used as food for the Visitors” on Steven’s orders, but the show never depicts who actually consumes him.[1]
- There is no on-screen scene of a Visitor—male or female—eating Daniel, and no canonical source identifies a particular Visitor woman as his killer or consumer.[2][3]

Why there’s confusion

- Fans often assume some high-ranking Visitor (like Diana) might have been involved, because she is strongly associated with the Visitors’ more sadistic behavior and feeding scenes, but that is never stated or implied in the text.[4][5]
- Official and fan reference materials simply stop at Daniel being sent to the food processing facility; anything beyond that is speculation or fan-canon, not series canon.[6][3][2][1]

Daniel's Fate After the Food Facility

Daniel Bernstein was sent to be processed as food for the Visitors on Steven's orders after his arrest, but the series never shows or details what happens next—his story ends there abruptly.[11][12][13]

Steven's Role

Steven, played by Andrew Prine, is a high-ranking Visitor leader who serves as Diana's second-in-command and oversees security operations during V: The Final Battle. He directly orders Daniel's transfer to the processing facility following the interrogation.[12][13][14]

Framing Daniel for Brian

The Resistance captured Brian at the Bernstein house and planted evidence to implicate Daniel, leveraging his collaborator status and recent killing of Ruby Engels. Caleb Taylor specifically framed him by accusing Daniel of betraying Brian, which led to the torture and Steven's retaliation.[11][12]
